

Reading Summary additional instructions

- Summary must be in your own words.
- In addition to a general description of the article's content, you can paraphrase passages by the author that you find particularly significant.
- Given the limited length of this assignment, you must not quote full paragraphs, sentences or sentence fragments.
- However, you are allowed to quote particular phrases, expressions or words used by the reviewed author.